

Equity Leadership Certificate™

Who It's For

The Equity Leadership Certificate provides participants with a comprehensive set of tools to equip them to make a lasting change within their personal relationships, their organizations, and their community. Participants develop knowledge around leadership styles, communication strategies and how to develop a personal equity development plan based on the Equity Experience Framework.

The Objectives

Participants will:

- Understand today's equity concerns and challenges.
- Identify personal strengths and weaknesses in equity thinking and actions.
- Develop an understanding of how equity thinking and actions affect relationships, communication and the ability to lead.
- Understand, respect, appreciate, and value individual differences.
- Explore how to improve equity knowledge, communication, and leadership skills.

Schedule

The Equity Leadership Certificate™ is an 15-week experience consisting of three courses in a cohort-based model offered twice per year.

Faculty

Our faculty team includes some of the best leaders in the industry. Most of them are adjunct professors with a doctoral degree and still working in their respected field and are able to bring real-life examples to the classroom.

Certificate Courses

COURSE 1

EQI Discovery

EQI 302 | 3 Credits | 5 weeks

The course creates a framework for developing Equity Thinking and Equity Actions. Key concepts focus on: creating shared understanding; developing personal equity agility; respecting differences; removing barriers; promoting civility; and exposing biases.

Participants develop a comprehensive approach to understand equity challenges and ways to use Equity Thinking and Equity Actions to make improvements as a benefit to society.

COURSE 2

Leading in a Diverse & Global Context

EQI 303 | 3 Credits | 5 weeks

The course examines leadership practices within multi-cultural and global contexts.

Key concepts include cultural dimensions as well as cultural intelligence and global competencies. Students will integrate a biblical perspective of diversity and inclusion for ethical and effective leadership.

COURSE 3

Communication as Leaders

EQI 304 | 3 Credits | 5 weeks

The course examines communication models and strategies for effective verbal and non-verbal communication as a leader.

Key concepts include recognizing and overcoming barriers to communication, including how biases contribute to miscommunication between the leader and follower. Students will also analyze biblical perspectives on respectful communication.
